Privacy Notice

Who I am

Chatty Cherubs is run and owned by myself (Jenny Manton), Independent Speech and Language Therapist. I provide Independent Speech and Language Therapy to pre-school aged children in their homes and educational settings.

I am registered with the Health and Care Professions Council (HCPC), Royal College of Speech and Language Therapists (RCSLT) and The Association of Speech and Language Therapists in Independent Practice (ASLTIP). I am also a registered Data Controller with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO).

The website is www.chattycherubs.co.uk

The social media pages are <https://en-gb.facebook.com/chattycherubs/>

Collection of personal information

Information obtained from parents/carers may be received verbally or by written information.

Information can include:

- A referral form which contains up to date contact information and concerns regarding your child's speech, language and communication completed prior to the initial appointment
- Case history including medical and developmental information completed with yourself at the initial appointment
- Consent form
- A copy of my terms and conditions signed by yourself
- Case notes which are written after each appointment/therapy session
- Reports, therapy targets and programmes
- Invoices and receipts
- Email correspondence containing your email address regarding your child
- Photographs you have provided me with as part of therapy in order to make resources
- Some parents/carers are happy to scan reports from other professionals and email them to me. Please be aware that this is done at your own risk and consider the sensitivity of the information you are sending before doing so as email is not a 100% secure method of communication
- Your telephone number and text message correspondence which is stored on a password protected mobile phone under parents/carers name

Verbal and/or written information may be received by other professionals involved in the care of your child with your consent which may include reports and therapy targets.

You may use the Chatty Cherubs website without providing any personal data. The website and social media pages contain links to other websites which are out of my control and are not covered by this privacy notice. I am not responsible for any data which you are provided with through websites which are linked.

If an enquiry is received by a parent/carer and the child is not taken on as a client, personal information will be deleted. If the child is taken on as a client, information will be added to their file.

The purpose of processing

Information received is held and processed for the specific and legitimate purpose of assessment and therapy for your child. It is limited and relevant to Speech and Language Therapy Practice.

Information is processed in order to:

- Plan, prepare and provide assessment and therapy which is relevant for your child's speech, language and communication needs
- Write reports, therapy targets and programmes
- Communicate with you via telephone, post, email and text message regarding:
  - confirming and preparing sessions
  - general communication in between sessions
  - sending you advice and/or resources
  - sending you reports, therapy targets and programmes for your child (in a password protected PDF document if via email)
  - copying you into and forwarding email correspondence with other professionals involved in your child's care (using your child's initials or first name)
  - sending you invoices and receipts

This information is confidential. With your consent, information regarding your child's speech, language and communication needs and input for your child can be shared with other professionals who are involved in the care of your child. A copy of your consent will be kept in your child's file.

Unless there is a legal obligation, I will not disclose any personal information other than discussed above.

Your details are not given or sold to third parties and no agents will process the data.

How information is stored

Information is stored in a paper format in files which are kept in a locked filing cabinet. Information including reports, programmes and invoices are held in password protected documents on an encrypted laptop. Information is backed up onto an encrypted external hard drive. Parents/carers telephone numbers and text message correspondence are stored on a password protected mobile phone.

For the purpose of therapy, videos may be taken of clients with parent/carer consent. These are temporarily saved on a password protected tablet. These may then be viewed by myself in order to make notes in a child's file within 24 hours of the child's session after which the videos will be deleted.

All information will be held and processed in line with the General Data Protection Regulation 2018 (GDPR). I regularly review and, where necessary, update my privacy information.

The lawful basis for the processing

Legitimate interests

In accordance with the GDPR, processing of personal data is necessary for purpose of the legitimate interest of providing Speech and Language Therapy input for your child. This is so that I can ensure that I am providing the most accurate, appropriate and relevant service to target their needs which cannot be done without holding and processing their personal data.

Categories of personal data obtained and special condition

Information obtained is considered to be under special category data. This means that the data is sensitive as it includes information regarding health. The special condition for processing the data is that 'processing is necessary for health or social care purposes.'

The retention period for the personal data

Information will be kept until your child's 25th birthday after which will be destroyed.
